Jerome Goudelock Joins Synch-Solutions as Vice President of Client Services

CHICAGO, Aug. 8 – Jerome Goudelock, former Deputy Chief Information Officer for Chicago Public Schools, has joined Synch-Solutions as Vice President of Client Services.

Jerome comes to Synch-Solutions with more than 20 years of accomplished business experience, and a diverse background of implementing, customizing, supporting and maintaining Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) applications for various clients. His industry experience includes K-12 Education, Professional Services, Financial Services, Retail, Oil and Food Services. Jerome brings substantial knowledge of Oracle's E-Business Suite, PeopleSoft Enterprise, KRONOS TimeKeeper and Lawson for Public Sector.

"We are very proud that Synch-Solutions was able to attract such a highly skilled executive," noted John Sterling, President and CEO of Synch-Solutions. "Jerome's experience fits hand in glove with our service offerings. He will be heading a delivery practice that already has national reach. His leadership will help propel Synch-Solutions into the future."

Jerome serves on the Board of Directors for Legacy 21, and on Oracle's Global Human Capital Advisory Board.

Jerome earned his Bachelor's degree in Information Systems from Paine College, Augusta, Georgia, and his Master's degree in Finance from DePaul University's Kellstadt Graduate School of Business, in Chicago. Prior to his role with Chicago Public Schools, he worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers as a Director, implementing and upgrading HR and Financial ERP systems.
